the Remarkable Charge. Frederick Kunz, who has a shoemaker's shop in Winfield, and who is accused of luring young women to his house, had a hearing before Justice Manley in the Long Island City Police Court yesterday on complaint of Miss Maggie Hoffman of 428 East Minth street, this city, one of his alleged victims. Kunz is 44 years old. He is nowerfully built. His wife and grown daughters left him three years ago, and since then Kunz has had the house to himself. Lawyer A. P. Wagner of 50 to himself. Lawyer A. P. Wagner of 183
Second avenue, this city, who represents
Files Hoffman and other complainants, says
Kunz made it a practice to hire German girls unacquainted with the country and to take them to his place. Kunz is alleged to have worked in a systematic way. He advertised in a matrimonial paper and German papers in in a matrimonial paper and German papers in the city for housekeepers, and Lawyer Wagner says he learned at the Post Office in Winheld that some weeks ago Kunz received as many as 100 letters, all from servant girls wanting places. At times he is said to have bired as many as two and three girls one week. He made it a practice made them in New York and take them to his house in Winfield. Some of the girls would rue away the next morning. It is them to his house in Winnest. Some of the girls would run away the next morning. It is said he threatened to kill them if they informed against him. The majority of the girls he leved he would carry out his threat, while others were poor and friendless and did not know how to obtain redress. Lawyer Wagner is now seeking to obtain the addresses of other victims of kunn's alieged brutality.

Miss Hoffman, the romplainant is a respectable-looking weman, about 28 years old. She has cark eves a well-rounded form, and is good looking. In her testimony yesterday she said Kunz called at her home in response to an advertisement she had printed inquiring for a pines. He tald her parents he was a widower with three children. This occurred in February last. Kunz called on the family geveral times, and finally on Wednesday. Feb. 17, he induced her to go with him back to his place in Winfield. They got there after dark and Miss Hoffman and she found a Fervant girlat work in the kitchen. Kunz then started to show her through the house, and whon they reached his own room he threw her dawn. Her rereams brought up the servant girl from the kitchen, who looked into the room, Kunz ordered her down stairs again. He kept the witness in the house until the lollowing saturday.

While she was in the house Miss Hoffman found a card bearing a woman's address, and on means of it Lawyer Wagner hunted out

Mrs. Mary beis of 730 Second avenue, this city, testified that two weeks ago kunz tried to hire her as a housekeeper. He said he was a widower. She went out to Winfield, and Kunz asked her to marry him, but she refused, and returned to the city before nightfull.

George Smith, who worked in Kunz's shop, went to Long Island City resterday morning to see Kunz, and Lawyer Wagner served a subpernahim. While Smith ried as much as possible to shield his employer in his evidence, yet some damaging testimony was obtained. Smith shot in the shop, so he didn't know what went on in the house at night. He saw different servant girls there every week. Smethimes there were two or three in one week, and often as many as that in one day. Some of the girls got there Saturday night and ran away Sunday merning. He had seen Miss Hoffman, Miss Hernsdorff, and Mrs. Dels at the house.

Kunz then had an opportunity to testify in his own behalf. He denied having maitreated Miss Hoffman. What occurred, he testified, was at her own suggestion. He objected to telling the name of the servant girl who was at his house the night Miss Hoffman arrived, but finally said it was Rosa Miller. The names of his other servant girls he failed to remem-her. ber.
The hearing on Miss Hermsdoff's complaint will he held to-morrow, when the Justice will render a decision in both cases. At the conclusion of the hearing ball for Kunz was fixed at $2,000. He was taken back to juil.

TEN YEARS OF THE ACTORS' FUND. Anniversary Meeting in Palmer's Theatre

The Actors' Fund of America celebrated the completion of its first decade of charitable work yesterday at a big anniversary meeting in Palmer's Theatre. President Palmer was presented with an oil painting of himself. which had been subscribed for by Edwin Booth and seven other actors and managers. Louis Aldrich made the presentation.

President Palmer reviewed the work of the

There was a breezy time at the business meeting preceding the celebration. An effort was made to elect William H. Crane and Col. William E. Sinn trustees in place of F. F. Mackay and H. A. Bockwood on the regular ticket, but it failed. Twenty-one trustees were chosen. These officers were elected: President, Albert M. Palmer; Frst Vice-President, Louis Aldrich; Second Vice-Fresident, Louis Aldrich; Second Vice-Fresident, Lawin Knowles; Treasurer, Frank W. Sanger; Secretary, Charles W. Mrs. Sol Smith wanted to know if the Fund couldn't suggest some plan to prevent irresponsible managers from taking companies on the road and swindling the actors out of their galaries. President Falmer said that a safe plan would be for actors and actiesses to accept smaller salaries from responsible managers rather than the glittering promises that are not fulfilled.

Mrs. E. Fernandez suggested that it would

Mrs. F. L. Fernandez suggested that it would be a just recognition of the actresses if seven women trustees should be elected. President Palmer said that those who wished could vote for women trustees. No woman was elected a trustee, however.

PARDRIDGE POORER THAN HE WAS. He Loses About $300,000 in the Last Deal

CHICAGO, June 7.-Plunger Pardridge has not as much money as he had a fortnight ago. He met his Waterloo in the great deal in wheat and corn that he has been engineering, and is now trying to get in out of the wet. Within fifteen minutes before the close of the Board to-day July wheat advanced from 80%c, to 88c. Pardridge, who for four months has been fighting the advance, was covering the wheat which he had sold on the expectation of lower prices. During that time he bought in, through his own brokers and those of commission houses to whom he was short, 2,000,000 to 3,000,000 bushels of wheat. The total amount bought is considered about one-half his entire shortage. This wheat, which he bought from Sie to 88c., he had sold at from 78c, to 83c. Ilis loss on the deal is about $500,000.

BARBARA MAAS IN LOST.

The Wharf and the Streets About Her Home Have Been Scarched in Vain. Ten-year-old Barbara Maas has been missing from her home at 546 West Fortieth street since last Saturday afternoon, and, though her parents, her little brothers, and her grandmother have searched the neighborhood for miles of city blocks and wharves, her playmates and the neighbors have joined in the search, and a general alarm has been sent out from Pollee Headquarters, not a trace has been found. She is a bright, rompish, talkative child, making friends with oversbody, not afraid of strangers or strange things, or any

BARBARA MAAS.

Barbara, or "Bab," as she was called, went with her mother to the wharf at the foot of Fortieth street on Saturday to get fee. Bab helped carry the lee home and put it in the ice box. Then she went out to play again, and that is the last either her parents or her playmates know of her. She had no hator jacket on, and was expected back in less than an hour. This was shortly after 2 o'clock. Supper time came, but Bab was not there, and in the evening the mother and father became alarmed and went out to look for her. The search was continued until late into the night without a sign or a word of Bab. The parents sought long after others had given up, and went home in the early morning. On Sunday the search was renewed, and the parents went or sent to all their friends in the city and in New Jersey, and on Monday the case was reported to the police.

The Fortieth street wharf is used by a coal company as well as the lee company, and also for general shipments of merchandise. I sully the case was remarked to the police, and the children by the dozen play on the wharf and scramble over the boats. Several of the men on the wharf know Barbara well, and say she was unusually elever and agile in jumping on and about the barges. She was seen there Saturday morning, but no one remembers seeing her in the afternoon or since. An ice boat left the wharf saturday night for Albany, where it should have arrived last night, and several coal barges also left about the same time. The wharf people think it possible she may have gone aboard and slept in some corner and have been carried away.

Barbara is 10 years old, rather under the average height for that age, but very sturdly built. She has a round face, brown eyes, and black hair. Her hair reaches just to her shoulders, and is braided on top of her head, and was tied with a brown ribbon. She had on a dress made of black and white check print, but faded almost white, black stockings, and button shoes. The dress was fashloned into a sailor blouse with a broad collar.

SHE FOUND HER MISSING DAUGHTER,

But the Girl was Tired of Home and Mrs. Hanson was Beaten and Driven Away. Ann Hanson registers herself as a stevedore and makes money in managing the unloading of the few canal boats and small vessels which reach West Farms by way of West Chester leach and the Brony River A week ago Monday her 17-year-old daughter Ella tired of the monotony of the sleepy little village and ran away. Mrs. Hanson searched in vain, intil a friend told her she had seen the missing girl enter a tenement at 101st street and

Mrs. Hanson visited the house at 9 o'clock vesterday morning, and found her daughter in a room on the second floor in the company of two men. The girl refused to return home and Mrs. Hanson persisted until one of the men struck her in the face and thrust her out into the hailway. She found her way to the Harlem Court, where she got a warrant for her assailant. Mrs. Hanson's face was severely bruised, and her right eye was swollen and discolored.

bruised, and her right eye was swollen and discolored.

She had heard her assailant called Ward, and policeman Finnegan found Thomas Ward of 1,70% Park avenue loitering about 101st street and Third avenue. Ward ran on catching sight of the officer, but was caught after a chase of six blocks. He is a bricklayer, 22 years old, and is out of work. He said he had nothing to do with causing Mrs. Hanson's daughter to run away, and that he struck Mrs. Hanson in self-defence. Ella would come to court as a witness in his behalf. Ward said, and Justice Voorhis held him in $500 bail for examination.

FANS TO VENTILATE SCHOOL ROOMS. They Are Expensive, but Dr. Edson Says

the City Ought to Have Them. Sanitary Superintendent Cyrus Edson sub mitted to the Health Board yesterday the results of an investigation by Dr. Moreau Morris of the sanitary condition of the school buildings. The reports on tive schools, No. 10, at 180 Wooster street: No. 42, at 30 Allen street: No. 69, at 125 West Fifty-fourth street; No. 67, No. 69, at 125 West Fifty-fourth street; No. 07, at 225 West Forty-first street; No. 70, at 215 East Seventy-fifth street, were submitted as samples. Except in one up-town school, Dr. Morris says the ventilation is imperfect.

Dr. Morris recommended a method of properly ventilating the school rooms. This method, which Dr. Edson approves, is used in other cities, and, in his opinion, it is "the only adequate means of ventilating school buildings." It consists of "fams so arranged and operated as to force into the room-a supply of air equal per minute to about thirty cubic feet per capita, and outlet ducts so constructed as to permit egross of partially respired air."

Dr. Edson writes:

Aside from the well-known direct effects of bad air.

Dr. Edson writes:
Acide from the well-known direct effects of bad air, slight physical atlinents of children, wholly unnoticed, are often developed by the impurities of the air of our school records into serious diseases. The only obsection that can be made to the recommendations of Dr. Morries that their compilance will entail the expenditure of a large sum of money. This objection should not weight for a moment against the health of the school children. Fure air is absolutely essential to their well-being. The air of our school buildings should be made pure, regardless of cost.

They pursued him a short distance, and, finding they could not eatch him, all three shot, and their victim fell and lived only a few hours. A posse was organized and are in pursuit of the murderers.

Fun by Boys in Flushing.

A solemn-faced small boy told a Brooklyn policeman last night that a drunken man was nue and Frost streets. The policeman summoned a patrol wag n, and a crowd gathered moned a patrol wagen, and a crowd gathered around the lamppost to see the man taken in. The friends of the scienn-faced boy were on hand to see the policemen taken in. The man apparently was in a condition of coma. When Policeman Clarke, who came on the wagon, grasped the drunkard roughly by the arm, his hat fell off and straw protruded above his coat collar. The friends of the solemn-faced boy made the welkin ring as the wagon drove off.

They stopped at a house occupied by an Italian family, and Scott, with a loaf of bread in his hands, went up stairs. When he reached the top of the flight he saw a gun hanging on the wall. He dropped the bread, took down the gun, and, looking down the stairway, saw his chun sitting in the wagon. Without a word of warning Scott raised the gun to his shoulder, took aim, and fired. With a scream young liouvier fell forward. The shot had blown his face off, destroying his eyesight, and making his death certain.
